

Bill Davis Biography

Bill Davis is the Chair of the UAGC - Forbes School of Business & Technology BA Operations Management and Analysis \(BAOMA\) Advisory Board. Bill is also the Program Chair of the UAGC BAOMA program. Bill has extensive experience and education in all aspects of business: consultant, management, leadership, sales, marketing, strategic planning, human resources, and organizational change. He has over three decades of experience working in the beverage industry, specifically in the PepsiCo system, a Fortune 500 company, serving in front, middle management, and executive level leadership positions. Bill is a pracademic who successfully transitioned his highly successful career into academia. He has taught over 320+ courses in higher education in online and on ground modalities and has over 20 years of extensive academic experience.